

Mentoring Program Interest Form

Jackson Street Youth Services offers quality-based and youth-centered mentoring for ages 10-24 years old in Benton, Linn, and Lincoln Counties. Mentors are carefully vetted adult volunteers who desire to make a positive difference in the lives of youth through connection and guidance. Matched Mentees and Mentors meet one-on-one weekly, or for about four hours per month, with a one year commitment. Matched pairs will spend their time in the community doing fun and engaging activities, focusing on the youth's interests and needs.

A full application will be provided following the receipt of this interest form.
